#4 - Newsletter "Human Rights across Europe" – 2011 – 2013

Dear Readers!

The fourth meeting of "Human Rights across Europe" took place in Yozgat from 25th to 28th April 2013. The host organizations, Cayiralan People Education Center, welcomed Polish, Finnish, Spanish and German partners. We reviewed the application form if there was something missing and we organized a workshop about preparing the final report. All these activities took place in Yozgat because Cayiralan is a district without any hotel.

We made cultural visits to Çamlık National Park, Yozgat Museum & Hayri İnal Mansion, Çapanoğlu Mosque and Clock Tower.

The second day we visited to Cayiralan People Education center and we talked about dissemination and evaluation of the Project. We had a ceremony for certification in Cayiralan. Then we went to Capadocia as a cultural visit.

After the meeting in Granada – before the meeting in Yozgat

Çayıralan Halk Eğitimi Merkezi, Turkey

We made dissemination activities after the fourth meeting. We organized visits to Provincial directoriate of Ministry of National Education, Çayıralan subgovernorship and we mention about the Project activities.

We printed the brochures and disseminated them to other education centers in Yozgat province

PARTNERS

HUMAN RIGHTS ACROSS EUROPE

Human Rights Across Europe project aims to raise awareness on human rights. Therefore the project is a raising awareness project of adults. The main target group consists of general public including representatives of NGOs, teachers, psychologists etc.. During our partnership we focused on preparing an e-learning platform on fundamental human rights. This partnership offers exchange of experiences and knowledge between the organizations who have trainings on human rights. We want to rise the awareness of the society on human rights. The main result of the project will be an e-learning platform on human rights. The e-learning platform is ready and includes fundamental human rights issues.

VHS Lingen gGmbH, Germany

In 2012, the VHS Lingen had launched a new e-learning project.

After the meeting in Yozgat, our Human Rights group took this opportunity to be part of it.

Next Human Right topic on our agenda was "Death Penalty". – (For further information download our lesson plan: <http://www.human-rights-eu.com/casestudies.html>).

Since 2012, the VHS Lingen has been involved in the pilot project "eLearning und LebensLanges Lernen" - eL4 (= eLearning and LifeLong Learning – eL4). Our learning group has been testing it since February 2013 to see how e-learning will work for us.

Conclusion: The elaboration of the topic "Death Penalty" in an online setting had taken much longer as it would have taken in a face-to-face setting. We came to some good results, though.

In the vivid final discussion, the learners talked about the feelings they had when working through our lesson plan on the Death Penalty.

This left us with a deep impression of how difficult this topic is and that it is not just black and white, but rather a range of many shades of grey.

A fruitful project is coming to an end; at the moment everyone is enjoying their summer holiday. But anyway, we will go on teaching and learning about Human Rights.

Dissemination activities

We have provided information on the results of the project during our meetings and actions and the radio interview as well as during other international meetings the framework of partnerships and various projects. The description of the project and the students' essays on human rights will be published in an issue of the social-literature magazine "Tygiel" and also on the website of the Tolerance Institute.

Activities developed by FDO for the third meeting

As regards the 4th meeting in Yozgat, Turkey, we got together with the computer technician to incorporate the results of the survey in the web.

On the other side, the members of our organization put together the results of the activities developed with the students to explain them during the 4th meeting in Yozgat, Turkey.

We worked for the dissemination of the project with other institutes of the province, like the Radio of La Zubia.
